Dear Mr. Jessepe:

Greetings to you,
and what a lovely,

beautiful medallion

from one of my favorite Museums, and from
so special a friend!

Thank you for your
warm thought which prompted you to send it, and for your spirit and love. I shall treasure it, along with the lovely little cross you pressed into the my hand as we left each other following the concert last summer.

My life continues
to provide memorable
rewards and hard, creative work. We can ask for no more, as your life
so beautifully proves.

Bless you, and every good wish... Maybe ~~Whitman~~
